ABOUT ME

I consider my flexibility to be my strength. I adapt to different situations. Since I was a full-time student, I was not able to work at full capacity and I have already gained some experience in different fields. I worked as a translator in a marriage agency, a call center operator, a farmer and several other jobs, so I have many different skills. I would like to have a permanent job. As they say, stability is the key to success.
